Minnesota Vikings Punter, Chris Kluwe's Band to Perform at RedSky Lounge
RedSky Lounge to Host Exclusive Tripping Icarus Show

Mankato, Minnesota, July 8, 2010—RedSky Lounge today announced an exclusive show with Minnesota Vikings punter Chris Kluwe's band; Tripping Icarus on July 22nd, 2010 at 9:00 p.m. to kick off Minnesota Vikings Training Camp. Kluwe who will be on Bass, will also be hosting a Meet & Greet at 7:00 p.m. at RedSky Lounge. Tripping Icarus will be joined by local musicians, Angry Waters.

"Tripping Icarus was formed in 2009 by Andrew Reiner and Chris Kluwe," said Christy Steinbach, Founder, Full Moon Productions, "The best way I can describe their sounds in a cross between Sound Garden and The Crash Test Dummies."

Tripping Icarus recorded its debut EP at Pachyderm Studios during the 2009 Summer Solstice Festival. The band is currently hard at work on its first full-length album, Bread and Circuses.

"Our live music line-up continues to grow and draw great support from the Greater Mankato music community," said Ryan "Rudy" Stroup, General Manager, RedSky Lounge. "We are thrilled to partner with Full Moon Productions to bring Tripping Icarus to Mankato, leading into Vikings Training Camp with great music."
